HUERTA FORCED TO BACKDOWN

Tampico Will Remain Open For Shipment of Munitions of War.

U. S. NAVY TOO STRONG

Envoys at Niagara Falls Prevent Failure of Mediation—Carranza Likely to Enter Conference.

Mexico City, June 8—The Huerta goverment today decided to countermand the order for a blockade of Tampico.

This action by Huerta is believed to have followed receipt of word from Niagara Falls to the effect that the United States would not permit the blockade. The Huerta cabinet of course realized the utter futility of opposing the American naval force

Washington, June 8—Senod Riano, Spanish ambassador to this country, officially notified Secretary of State Bryan this morning that General Huerta had called off the proposed blockade of Tampico. This notification followed other official dispatches from Mexico City to the same effect.

Much relief was manifested in official circles when it was learned that Huerta has backed down in his plan to blockade Tampico. It obvoates the necessity of the United States showing its hand in favor of the constitutionalists.

LEO M. FRANK'S APPEAL.

Prosecution Contended Basis of Appeal was too Slight for Court's Consideration.

Atlanta, June 8 —Hearings on the motion to set aside the verdict which pronounced Leo M. Frank guilty of the murder of Mary Phagan, the little factory girl, for which crime the young factory superintendent now is under sentence of death, were opened before Judge Ben H. Hill, of the Fulton county superior court, here Saturday.

The motion was based on the claim that Frank's constitutional rights were violated when the verdict was returned during his absence from the courtroom. Judge L .S. Roan, trial judge in the famous case, permitted the returning of the verdict while Frank was absent on representation of attorneys for both prosecution and defense that there was possibility of a public demonstration.

The answer of the prosecution to the motion to set aside the verdict was read to Judge Hill by Solicitor General Dorsey immediately after the hearing was opened. After he had finished this, Mr. Dorsey filed a general demurrer to the motion.

In his answer Mr. Dorsey admitted that Frank was not present in court when the verdict against him was returned, but delared that both Frank and his attorneys had waived his presence, and that the attorneys agreed to the court not to take advantage of the defendant's absence. The solicitor general argued that Frank's absence was permitted by the court and did not co-operate to the injury of any one or deprive Frank of any right guaranteed by law.

Referring to public opinion in connection with the case, Mr. Dorsey said that at no time was there any well grounded basis or reason for the suspicion that mob violence would be done the defendant or his counsel had they been present. He charged that Frank's lawyers so conducted the case that innocent occurrences were magnified and a studied effort made to impress the court with the existence of prejudice and public feeling against the accused man. In concluding his answer, Mr. Dorsey asserted that Frank, by his silence until April 16, had forfeited all right to take exception to the verdict on the ground that he was not present when it was handed down. Mr. Dorsey claimed that attorneys for the defense were legally bound by the agreement made at the time the verdict was returned not to take advantage of Frank's absence.

The general election will take place in this city tomorrow for members of both branches of the City Council.

The polls will open at sunrise (4:37) at the following places:

First ward—Armory Hall, on south Royal street.

Second ward—Building adjoining old City Hotel, on north Royal street.

The polls will close at 7:21

All places where liquor is sold will close this evening at 6:00 o'clock and remain closed until 6.00 o'clock Wednesday morning.

THREE MEN SHOT IN FARM HOUSE

One Victim Rushed to Hospital May Die.

HAD GONE TO BUY FARM

The Authorities Declare the Affair was an Accident and Occurred While Visitors Were Being Shown Through House.

Camden, N. J., June 8.—One man seriously, if not fatally, wounded, and two received many small shot in their bodies, as the result of an accident at the farmhouse of Frank H. Petzold, of Lucaston, near here.

A shotgun was accidentally discharged as the men were passing through a room. After an investigation the police said they were convinced that the affair was an accident and no action would be taken.

The injured are: Carl Pastor, of Lucaston, N. J., taken to the Cooper hospital, condition serious; Max Enders and Frank H. Kesege, both of Philadelphia.

According to the police and Petzold, the two Philadelphians were to call at the farm house and look it over, with the idea of purchasing. Kesege had the money with him with which he intended to make the first payment and was being shown about the house when the accident occurred.

When the two Philadelphians reached the farm, the police said, Petzold was working in a field and did not know of their approach. Pastor met them and started to show them about the house, saying they would walk over the farm when Petzold returned since he could tell the exact condition of each field and crop.

While passing through the bathroom Enders noticed a shotgun in a corner and remarked that it seemed to be a bad place to keep a gun. Pastor then took the gun, which was discharged as he lifted it from the floor. As the gun was discharged all the men in the room received some of the small shot, although the greatest quantity entered Pastor's body.

Petzold, whose statement was borne out by the other men, said he hurried to the house when he heard the shot and found the three men on the floor. Pastor seemed to be dying, and Petzold took him in an automobile to the Cooper hospital, where it was said he had received almost the entire contents of the charge and that his condition was serious.

Dr. William Westcott, of Berlin, N. J., was called to treat the wounds of the two men remaining at the Petzold farm, and he said that neither of the injured men under his care was in any danger unless the wounds became infected.

At the Cooper hospital Pastor made an ante-mortem statement in which he completely exonerated the others, and said the gun was in his hands at the time of the accident.

DEATH IN HIS PITCHING

Boy Tests Skill With Rock on Box of Dynamite.

Kansas City, June 8.—Roy Branson, fourteen; Harry Hennessy, nine; Robert Hennessy, thirteen, and George Hennessy, six, were playing on a corner lot.

Roy Branson, who had often expressed his ambition to become a base ball pitcher, boasted of his accurate throwing. Robert Henessy challenged him to a trial of skill. They had no ball, so they used stones, selecting an abandoned box as a target.

Roy threw first. He hit the box. It was filled with dynamite caps and dynamite. In the explosion that followed Roy was killed. The Hennessy boys were badly injured. Robert and Harry each lost the sight of one eye.

JURY CLEARS A GOVERNOR

In Two Minutes Decides Kansas Executive Did Not Hit Woman.

Topeka, Kan., June 8.—Mrs. Luella West, of Wichita, is not entitled to damages from Governor George H. Hodges, of Kansas, for an alleged assault and battery, decided by a jury in the case after deliberating two minutes.

Mrs. West alleged that while on a visit to the governor's office on April 3 the governor struck her during a scuffle for possession of papers in the case of Frank Sullivan, a convict, to plead for whose release Mrs. West had called at the office.

Orphan Boy, 11, Hangs Himself.

York, Pa., June 8.—Wilfred Snyder, eleven years old, a motherless Glenville, boy, is lying between life and death as the result of an attempted suicide by hanging. He is probably the youngest on record in the county to have undertaken such a deed.

Weigh Yourself Before Using

Weigh yourself before commencing to use Samose, the great flesh-forming food. The wonderful sale on this preparation since first introduced in Alexandria and the remarkable results following its use have made E. S. Leadbeater & Sons such enthusiastic believers in the great value of Samose that they give their personal guarantee to refund the money if Samose will not make thin people fat and restore strength and health to those who use it.

This is a strong guarantee, but E. S. Leadbeater & Sons have seen so many of their customers who a few weeks ago looked like walking skeletons become plump and well, solely through the use of Samose that they feel they cannot say too much to induce people to try it.

This marvellous flesh-forming food is assimilated as soon as it is taken into the stomach, makes good rich blood, tones up the weakened system, helps to assimilate the food and makes the user plump, well and rosy.

A meeting will be held early next week for the purpose of reaching a definite understanding.

DOGS WERE UNMUZZLED

Police Arraign Delinquents Before Police Court This Morning.

A number of persons, white and colored were cited to appear before the Police Court this morning to answer the charge of allowing dogs to run at large upon the streets without muzzles.

A crusade was made upon such delinquents last summer and a number of dog owners were made to pay fines for refusing to obey the law but during the fall and winter muzzled dogs on the streets became a rarity and many owners of animals seemed to be acting upon the principal that the law was being more honored in the breach than the observance.

Upon being arrainged before the Police Court this morning in most cases the same excuses were urged as those of last summer. Some said the muzzles were taken from the heads of the curs, one colored woman alleging that she had purchased four this year; others told the court that the animals were pets and perfectly harmless.

Justice Caton imposed fines in some cases and in others ordered the dogs to be destroyed.

HICKS' PREDICTIONS.

High Wind, Lightning, Hail and Rain for June.

The Rev. Irl R. Hicks, the weather prognosticator, said that a reeactionary storm period would central June 5th 7th, the moon being in perigree and full on June 7th. He said that the Venus disturbance would blend with the end of June, and that from and after June 7th the barometer would fall decidedly, there would be a marked rise in temperature and storms of wind, rain and thunder would make their way across he country.

This will be followed by rising barometer about the 7th and 9th, and from the 10th to the 15th, there will be a regular storm period, being central on the 11th, "this date being the central day of an annual period of maximum electric and magnetic disturbance."

"At this period the whole terrestial globe takes on such excessive charges of electricity and magnetism that much of the remainder of the month is characterized by intense electrical storms, with almost continuous displays of sheet lightning, during the evenings and nights, for many successive days at a time.

"The Mercury period will blend with Vulcan, Venus, earth and Jupiter at this time, so that a low, menacing barometer at any time from the 10th to the 15th should be heeded as a dangerous signal.

"Heavy rains will visit most parts of the country, causing floods in small streams, valleys and rivers, and a little later high water and destructive overflows along the great central rivers.

There is to be another reactionary storm period on June 16th and 18th. Due to astronomic reasons there is likely to be heavy rains during the month, after June 21st, without any marked depressions of the barometer. Along about the 21st to the 25th storms will grow in severity, passing eastwardly across the country, with very heavy wind, rain, hail and thunderstorms, reaching their zenith about the 23d and 24th. On the 29th, when the moon is on the equator, there will be a sudden and positive rise in the thermometer, with low barometer and severe storms.

Hicks predicts that there will be seismic disturbances on the 5th to 10th of the month and again on 20th to 26th and that there are certain signs of volcanic disturbances the latter part of the month.

THE POOR BEARING THE BURDEN.

History is ever repeating itself, simple annals of the poor are always apparent.

It looks as though the hand of providence spurred Christopher Columbus to sail westward in search of a new world at a time when continental Europe was no longer able to sustain the myriads of souls who were increasing constantly. Apart from the legislation which prevailed in those countries which froze out the poor man bearing the heavy burden of taxation and compelled to retire to his crust and garret while privileged classes were passing their time in idleness and luxuriousness.

The New World proved a promised land to people of all nations, and in time free governments were established on this hemisphere where, in theory, every man was to be equal and all compelled to bear their proportion of the burdens of State.

Ignoring the many specimens of injustice to the sons of toil in our own land, when we turn our eyes to the south we behold the insolence of wealth again at work with its iron heel, and gaze upon conditions from which there is no emancipation.

It is often deplored that Mexico is in a chronic state of insurrection. As fast as one political cloud vanishes another appears on the horizon, but did we understand the conditions which breed these disturbances, we would doubtless look with more extenuation upon the unhappy poor of that country, destined to remain so until death closes the scene. The man who has been deprived of hope is naturally of little account in this world. It renders many pessimistic and others dangerous.

Without making any apologies for Carranza, Mexican rebel, who is causing trouble in Mexico and among those who are endeavoring to bring about peace, the following statement from him is worthy of perusal,

"Up to the present time the main burden of taxation has been borne by the poor. When I was governor of the state of Coahuila I made an appraisal of the property included in the municipality of Saltillo My figures were 60,000,000 pesos, which total was exactly fifty times greater than that upon which the taxation had been based previously. I found that the hovels of the poor were appraised at their full value, while the mansions of the rich were valued at ridiculously low figures. The public market places where the peon sells his trayful of fruits and vegetables, was so axed as to render even larger revenues to the municipality than did the entire larger commerce where the invested capital was many thousand times greater.

ASTOUNDS ENGLAND BY ENTERING PALACE

Engineer, Who Forced Way Into Royal Apartments, Remanded by Prosecutor.

LONDON, June 8.—All England is astounded today as it contemplates the amazing exploit of Harry Pike, a young engineer, who broke into Buckingham "just to show that it could be done."

Arraigned in Bow street court today Pike expressed contrition for his deed. He told the court it was merely the result of bravado originating in drink.

"I'm not a criminal," he declared. "I did it simply to prove that such an entrance was possible."

Prosecutor Muskett said it was apparent to him that Pike's exploit was a foolish freak resulting from over-indulgence in drink, and remained him for a week.

The young man evaded civil and military guards at night, scaled a high brick wall topped with sharp spikes, forced a basement window and wandered about the palace corridors at will. At one time he was within a few feet of the Queen's private apartments. He might have continued his explorations at will, had he not opened the door to one of the maid's rooms, awakening her. He was captured after a brief chase.

The incident created a vast stir here today, in view of the recent activity of suffragettes. Extreme care will be exercised at the palace to prevent any militant emulating Pike's feat.

Christine Edwards, a suffragette, was added to the list of prisoners, and Mrs. Mary Fausten, an American, faced charges today as a result of church activity by the militants yesterday. For the first time, the suffragettes invaded Catholic churches, interrupting the ceremonies by yelling denunciations of the government. In Westminster Cathedral one woman created a tumult, and at the oratory at promotion, fifteen of the militants rioted. Both the Andrews woman and Mrs. Fausten were arrested there.

Bitter indignation on the part of worshipers at the oratory caused the suffragettes to be roughly handled.

Caleb Powers Advocates Naming "Dry" Legislators

Advocating the election of temperance legislators to fight the liquor interests in obtaining prohibition, Congressman Caleb Powers spoke last night at the fourth rally of the Sons of Jonadab, at Kendall Baptist Church.

"The trouble with temperance people," said Congressman Powers, "is that they won't mix in 'dirty and crooked' politics, or else they have only ambition enough to sit back and view the fight between the liquor and prohibition men."

Short addresses were made by the Rev. Theron Outwater, pastor of Kendall Church; Grand Secretary John C. Moore and James C. Lee, of John Daly Council, No. 3; William J. Myers, of Unity Council, No. 2; John Morgan, of Hope Council, No. 1; Elmore W. Sanserson, and James F. Peake.

Man and Wife Killed, Girl Hurt, by Cyclone

WOODSTOCK, Ontario, June 8.—A cyclone of terrific violence, striking at a point two miles north of the city last night, caused the death of Thomas Bartley, farmer, aged seventy-four, and his wife, aged sixty-five.

Their home was completely demolished, nothing remaining but a pile of scattered debris, spread over an area of 300 yards. The damage was confined within a square mile.

Miss Robinson, visiting Harry Enthwistle, was standing at the kitchen door when the storm broke. She was hurled twenty feet away by the force of the wind and picked up unconscious, but not seriously injured.

ABLE CONGRESSMEN GET MOST P. O. CASH

Journal of American Institute of Architects Indorses Burleson's Minority Report.

That appropriations for postoffices are not based on service requirements, but are measurable by the ability of Congressmen to put them through, is the conclusion drawn in an article in the June number of the Journal of the American Institute of Architects in which indorsement is given to the minority report made by Postmaster General Burleson on the recent recommendations of the Public Buildings Commission.

Mr. Burleson presented a large list of postoffices in towns of about the same size and having the same requirements, where appropriations varied from $50,000 to $300,000.

The Architects' Journal, in commenting on the reports signed by the majority of the committee and the Burleson minority report, says that "reading the two impresses one anew with the value of an intelligent minority."

The majority and minority reports of the Public Buildings Commission, which present a connected scheme for annual public building appropriations, and carries recommendations for the early completion of buildings for the Department of State, Justice, and Commerce, as well as for the housing of all Government bureaus in Washington in buildings owned by the Government, is now before Congress.

Action on the report is not expected at the present session.

PHILADELPHIA, June 8.—William Cassady, an "innocent bystander," got a bullet in his thigh early today when Policeman Hayden fired at a band of hoodlums, escaping after an attempted robbery. Hayden let the "thugs" go and took his victim to a hospital, where he will recover.

Finds Race of "Fridays" In South America

PHILADELPHIA, June 7.—A story of wild Indian tribes who had never seen a white man, nor a gun, nor clothing, nor any of the common evidences of civilization until his arrival is brought from the interior of South America by Dr. Franklin Church, a member of the Amazon expedition of the University of Pennsylvania museum.

Dr. Church recently returned from the Guineas after a four-month journey, bringing with him the latest photograph taken by the expedition.

Dr. Church says the members of the tribes studied by the expedition were veritable "Fridays," living in the most primitive fashion.

Dr. Church left Brazil in January and came direct to this city and deposited at the university museum photographs and records of the South American tribes.

TURNER MADE HIS PAINTINGS GLISTEN

Brilliant Pigments With Which He Smeared His Canvases Caused Their Ruin.

LONDON, June 8.—From George Dunlop Leslie's book, "The Inner Life of the Royal Academy," one learns interesting details of the personalities of the academy. The most interesting pages are those which deal with Turner on varnishing days. They prove that the ruined condition in which many Turner's later works now are in the result of his own willfulness.

He seems to have thought of one thing only—how to make his pictures produce the most dazzling effect when exhibited.

He went about from one to another of them on varnishing days, piling on, mostly with the knife, all the brightest pigments he could lay his hands on, until the pictures literally blazed with light and color.

"Artists used to dread having their pictures hung next to them, saying that it was as bad as being hung beside an open window. They caught your eye the instant you entered the room. They were certainly most lovely and brilliant effects of color, but their meaning and the subjects were entirely unintelligible.

At the present time, though their unintelligibility remains, their radiant tints have long departed, and, in my opinion, they might just as well be burnt."

Fought Death 15 Hours In Yawl in Hurricane

GLOUCESTER, Mass., June 8.—Adrift off Cape Sable for fifteen hours in a small boat with a bitter northwest gale blowing and a high sea running, Capt. W. O. Perry and the four members of the crew of the fishing schooner Annie B. Lewis, of Boston, were brought in here today after having been snatched from death as by a miracle by the schooner Monitor.

Buffeted and tossed by the fierce storm of Thursday, their little vessel sprung a leak, slowly listed to port, and, with the seas rolling over her and her cargo rushing about below, finally turned turtle and went down.

The crew jumped into the single yawl on board, and for fifteen hours stood off death.
